

Have you been thinking about learning a new language? Visit your Altus AFB Library to register for your FREE online Transparent Language account, then learn a new language (includes ESL) from any computer with Web access, anytime and anywhere!

Research-based and experience-driven, Transparent Language Online is a language-learning program that provides an effective, fun, and engaging experience for language learners of all levels. Combining top-of-the-line courses with lots of great, supplemental resources for over 80 languages, Transparent Language Online is the ultimate language-learning system.

The following library patrons are eligible to register at the base library: USAF Active Duty, Air National Guard, AF Reservists, AF Retirees and the family members of these categories. Also eligible are AF Civilian employees and contractors who are eligible to use the USAF libraries. The families of AF civilian employees overseas, who are eligible to use our overseas libraries, may also use this service.

Stop by the library today to register in person for this online language resource!

